RAVINIA NIGHT
FRIDAY JULY 11TH

I am running this event for 2 other clubs, and why not add the Tritons. It is the opening night of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra at Ravinia. It is entitled the "89th Residency Opening Night", with the CSO playing a variety of music. Concert starts at 7:30, gate opens at 5 PM. I will communicate our lawn spot the week prior to the event. Lawn seats are quite reasonable at $15 each, and $12 for seniors (we have any)? See web link below to buy your tickets online (service fee applies), or buy them from the box office when you arrive (no fee added). Bring own food & drink and maybe a dish to pass. Come relax and have some Ravinia fun.

Triton's SEASON OPENER

Dive Pearl Lake Saturday, June 14, 2025

On Saturday, 12 Tritons and 6 guests met at beautiful Pearl Lake. Although many things there have changed since our last event, the lake and the diving were as good as ever, and the weather was perfect!

Our six guests were courtesy of Rose, who suggested we invite divers from the shop, Sea Level Diving. Our thanks to Rose for the idea and to Art for promoting it. Altogether, there were 10 divers.

Our trusty shore helpers included Prince Charming, who assisted the Princess with her slippers. The helpers also played, "How many Tritons does it take to reroute a tank strap?" One of the Sea Level divers dove with Pete Kloga, who then completed an Associate Dive Report toward membership! Welcome, Ian Esposito!

We had plenty of food and drink, including hot dogs, hamburgers, brats, potato salad, cole slaw, macaroni salad and chips. Tritons contributed pretzels, pasta salad, candy, and, of course, desserts. Although we missed Scott being there, we still got plenty of chocolate!
