

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Tritons,

Elections are finally done. Thank you so much to Renee Tobias, the out-going Secretary! Welcome to Pam Romund, the in-coming Secretary. Appreciate everyone that is willing to serve o the Board of Directors and gives their time! Thanks again to the Nominating Committee for all their hard work!

Haigh Quarry opened last Saturday, April 17th, I did not go, but hear it was cold. Pearl Lake has the same entrance requirements they had last year, you must be with an instructor associated with a store, you cannot go in as an individual diver. Pearl opens for diving on May 28th.

Hoping we can get out and do some diving later this year.

Remember if you need anything, please reach out.

Scott Reimer, President

CORONAVIRUS ERRAND OF MERCY

While Truk Lagoon has been closed to visitors, MV Odyssey, the luxurious diving liveaboard, is being put to good use providing accommodation and logistical support for local medical personnel administering COVID vaccinations to residents living on remote islands in the atoll. The team not only vaccinate for Coronavirus but also administer MMR vaccines to children. The medical team stays on board for five days per trip, while setting temporary clinics onboard. It is expected to take three months to reach all the islands. <https://www.trukodyssey.com/>

SOMETHING FOR WORLD WAR II BUFFS

As far as WW2 wreckage is concerned the Mediterranean is a treasure trove. Greece's Ministry of Culture and Sport has just announced the opening of 91 listed ship and aircraft wrecks to recreational divers, with more on the way. The majority are deeper than the 100 feet, with a preponderance of German JU88 bombers among British and Italian warplanes. Diver.net.com
